

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE ORDAINED?

Many of you have asked what it means to be ordained and what opportunities it will give you. I am giving you some information on what it means to be ordained.

As a legally ordained clergy-member you can:

Perform wedding ceremonies. Authorized in all 50 states.

Share your personal religious beliefs with others.

Earn the respect automatically accorded members of the clergy.

Qualify for tax free status as religious order.

If you wish, you can legally charge for the religious rites you perform; including weddings, funerals, services and more.

Lead, (even create your own) religious ceremonies and rites as a legally ordained member of the clergy.

Open a church to spread the fellowship of believers.

Legal in all 50 states. Some areas may require registration before conducting wedding ceremonies.

As a Pastor, Minister, Cleric, Priest, Clergy-Member, Bishop: Ordained, Clergy Members everywhere are provided preferred treatment, even price discounts, as a show of respect towards legally ordained religious leaders.

Visit prisons and bring hope and faith to those within.

Conduct funeral ceremonies.

Choose your own title: Minister, Reverend, Pastor, Cleric...you decide.

If you would like to be ordained, get your application in quickly.

Please pray about becoming a Covenant Partner with us and donating at least $25.00 per month. You will receive an incredible CD each month with your donation.
